inried by men from the Confederate army. At his hospital I remained, doing good, as I trust, intil the 31st of July, when I was marched, sith twenty other miserable beings, to Manasas across the fields, under the scorching heat of the burning sun, a distance of eight miles, almost at double quick time. On our arrival there, we were immediately introduced to the guard-house, a mean place, which then contained forty men, soldiers and citizens of Virginia. In this place we stayed three days; then a few of us were taken to a barn close by, where we remained till August 6. Here I will just say that this place is strongly fortified for the distance of seven or eight miles. There are immense breastworks thrown up, and a great number of batteries placed in every direction. They think it cannot be taken; but I think they are mistaken. On the 6th, five or six of us were sent to Richmond. On our arrival there we were taken to headquarters, and were provided with a boarding place, and told to report once a day. They gave us the liberty of the city; but we were not permitted to see the other prisoners. There are two large hospitals, which are filled with our wounded. I am told, by the ladies that have visited them, that they are well treated. There are also four large tobacco warehouses at the lower part of the city, which are filled with prisoners and wounded. The buildings I visited yesterday. They are closely confined; but, in some respects, are treated well. The surgeons now on parole will probably give a more satisfactory report. AFFAIRS IN RICHMOND.

AFFAIRS IN RIOHMOND.

The returned prisoners agree in representing that the treatment they received from the rebels was all that could be desired; that every attention was paid to our wounded that could be given under the circumstances; and they pointedly contradict the representations that barbarities were committed on our mea. The dead on the battle-field were all buried, though not as soon or as deep as could have been wished. The wounded as well as the prisoners were all taken to Richmond; the first are doing well, and the latter are properly cared for. The Connecticut prisoners refused to sign the parole.

The Connectant prisoners retused to right the parole.

Richmond is being fortified, but the works now are inconsiderable. The number of troops in the city is estimated from 8,000 to 12,000. Arrivals from the South occur daily, and the idea of marching on Washington is constantly encouraged. Men are being drafted to fill the rinks. There is an apparent pleuty of overything but metals, and men and officers are animated with the belief that their cause is about to be achieved.

mated with the benief that their cause is about to be achieved.

"Communication is constantly kept up between Richmond and the North pretty nearly as usual, by way of Baltimore, and the military authorities profess to be well informed of our movements.

Powder and other necessary articles are re-ceived in quantities through Kentucky. Large bodies of negroes are engaged in building batteries at Managess and elsewhere, and in batteries at Manassas and elsewhere, and in some festances prisoners have been put to work. Gen. McClellan, B. Williams, Ass't Adj't General.

B. WILLIAMS, ASS't Adj't General.

THE ORDER NEAD TO THE SEVENTY NINTH.

The following is the order read to the seventy-ninth regiment on Wednesday:

"The General commanding has heard, with the deepest pain, of the acts of insubordination on the part of the seventy-ninth regiment. Without attempting to enter into a discussion of the causes, it is sufficient to say that they are frivolous and groundless.

"That these acts have thrown disgrace upon the regiment and the service, and taking place at this time, they give rise to the strongest suspicions of the most abject cowardice. The regiment has forced upon the Commanding General au issue which he is prepared to meet.

"The men are ordered to lay down their arms and return to duty. All those refusing to do so will be fired upon immediately. If they comply with the order, the ringleaders only will be putished.

The baths will be administered by Dr. Alcan.
By command of Brigadier Gen. Mansfield:
THOS. C. SULLIVAN, A. A. A. General.

Selling Liquor to Soldiers. Yesterday, the Superintendent of the Hospital on Pirst street, east Capitol hill, entered a complaint before Justice Ferguson, that an individual in that vicinity had been selling liquor to sick soldiers, who had been confined at the hospital, but were getting better. He stated that be had requested him time after time not to do it, as in a great many instances it compelled the convaiescent soldiers to return again to the hospital and remain for weeks, when if liquor was kept from them they would soon be well and ready for duty. The justice very properly issued a warrant for the arrest of the individual so offending the law.

Pight.

Yesterday afternoon, a fight occurred be-tween two femiles of noted character, residing in that delectable locality, in the second ward, near Thirteen and a balf and C streets. The origin of the difficulty we were sinable to learn, but they fought for several minutes with great desperation, both receiving quite a number of marks and bruises. The matter was, however, soon settled by the interference of the proper authorities.

Runaway and Smach-up-Runaway and Smash-up.
Yesterday morning, about 10 o'clock, a horse attached to a buggy, standing on Second street, near G, suddenly became frightened and rac for some distance, when he was brought to stand by running against a tree-box. The bugg y sust ined considerable damage. Fortunately, there was no one in it at the time.

Another Runaway and Smash-up Another Runaway and Imazar-up. Four horses attached to a Government baggage wagon, drawing another new wagon and an ambulance, took fright yesterday morning, and ran against a lamp pest directly in front of the President's House. The lamp post was nearly destroyed, and the two wagons mashed to pieces before the herses could be stopped.

Mustered In. Captain Morrison's company, first regiment, District of Columbia volunteers, was yesterday mustered into the service of the Government. This makes the fourth company of this regiment already mustered in. The regiment is progressing finely, and it is probable all the remaining compasies will be mustered in in the course of a week or two.

Appeared:
On Thursday, Col. Willis A. Gorman, of the first Minnesota regiment, against whom the writ of habeas corpus was issued, appeared before Judge Catron, in chambers, and purged himself of the contempt supposed by his failure to appear at 12 o'clook Wednesday, which was followed by the issue of an attachment. The final hearing was set for Monday next, the 19th instant, in United States Supreme Court room, upon which coession E. M. Stanton, Esq., will appear for Col. Gorman. Appeared:

Yesterday afternoon, Capt. Davis, with fifty men of the New York twenty-sixth, while making a reconnoissance near Annandale, three miles south of Bailey's Cross Roads, met two companies of rebel cavairy. Captain Davis deployed his men along the edge of a wood, and was cautionaly advancing, when they were discovered by the rebels, who fired two volleys. They were returned by Captain Davis' detachment, and three of the rebels were seen to fall from their horses. The cavairy hastily retired, and immediately druins were heard sounding at Annandale, showing that a rebel force is stationed there.

both cases was postponed.

Swora In.

Three more companies of Col. Young's first cavalry regiment were aworn into the service yesterday morning, making seven in all, so far. The balance, three companies, will probably be ready to be sworn in by Monday next. One of the companies, from Cumberland county, Pa., has been organized ever since 1818. Twenty companies in all have applied to be admitted into this pepular regiment.

Two dollar counterfeit bank notes on the Farmers' Bank of Bridgeport, Connecticut, are now circulating in this city. Upon close exam-ination they can be detected from the genuine.

To the Citizens of Washington.

Your attention is asked to the consideration of a few questions affecting yourselves. A formidable rebellion is in existence against the Government. If it succeeds, what will your interest be worth? Are you doing what your interests demand to put down this rebellion? Have you done all you can to further the enlistment of men for the war? Have you taken any steps to raise a fund to provide for the families of married men who have or would enlist? If not, will you do it? These are pertinent questions affecting every man who calls Washington his home. What shall be the response. Union.

The steamer Resolute arrived at the Navy Yard this morning, bringing up the wounded and killed at the battle of Matthlas Point.

On the morning of the 15th, at about eleven o'clock, Captain Craven dispatched the steamers Resolute and Reliance to make a reconnoisance of Matthlas Point. At about 3 P. M. the Resolute, Acting Master Budd, returned to this anchorage and made a report substantially as follows:
